

A STRONG TICKET

Men Nominated Saturday are of the Right Stripe

Their Character and Competency as Well as their Republicanism Cannot be Assailed.

The ticket nominated last Saturday by the Republicans is made up of good men from top to bottom, their character, competency and Republicanism being unquestionably good.

The convention could not have made a bad ticket with the list of candidates there was to pick from all being safe men, who would have been strong on the ticket, would have made good officers and would have represented their party well.

Like every election or convention however, it was understood by every man that went into the convention that he must expect defeat and in this case he had only one chance in three to win, and it is indeed gratifying to note that each of the defeated candidates bore his defeat so nobly and assured the convention in such positive manner of his support and the support of his township.

Of the nine candidates nominated six are farmers, the first and three most important now living on farms, which is in itself a recognition that the farmer is a factor in politics in Rush county.

The campaign for the nominations was fair, clean and satisfactory and each of the candidates whether defeated or nominated has nothing but kind and complimentary words for his adversary in the nomination.

The following is a brief sketch of the ticket as nominated:

H. E. GUFFIN.

For Representative, is a farmer of Union township, who has ever been a staunch Republican, is an admirer of Senator Beveridge and will gladly conform with the instructions of the convention in that particular, and will do all in his power to forward the interests of Rush county and its citizens.

WILLIAM A. POSEY.

for County Clerk, is a man of energy, ability and character. He had been a candidate for the office of Clerk four years ago and met defeat in such a brave manner, supporting the ticket in its entirety, that he was rewarded in this convention by being nominated amid great enthusiasm on the first ballot.

ALBERT WINSHIP.

for County Auditor, is a man who does things, and he has been regarded as a strong man ever since his name has been mentioned in connection with the office to which he aspired. He will add strength to the ticket and will make an excellent county Auditor.

JOHN C. BLACKLIDGE.

for Treasurer, is our present efficient County Treasurer and is a man who "wears well." Since taking the Treasurer's office, John has made a host of friends and men who opposed Mr. Blackledge's nomination before and men of opposite political convictions have complimented him on the efficient and able manner in which he has conducted his office.

W. L. KING.

for sheriff, is the present efficient and well known deputy in the office of Mr. Bainbridge, our present Sheriff. He is a deserving man, qualified for the position and will make a good sheriff. Mr. King moved to this city from Walker township several years ago.

ORA HERKLESS.

for Surveyor, is the present surveyor by the appointment to fill an unexpired term. He is a young man of much ability in that line and has a host of friends and admirers who will assist him in rolling up a large majority.

DR. WILL COLEMAN.

for Coroner, is one of the highly respected young men of this city, and thoroughly understands his profession and will make an excellent officer and be of assistance to the general success of the ticket.

WILLARD AMOS.

commissioner of the Middle district, looking for re-election. Everybody knows Willard, and everybody knows he is just the man for the place, and that the county's business is safe in his hands.

CHARLES KELSO

for commissioner of the Southern district, is well known throughout the county. He is of that type of man whose very character can be read at a glance, and whose honesty and integrity is well known, a man who will not only be elected, but who will run ahead of his ticket.

APPOINTS TRUSTEE

Auditor Carr Fills Vacancy
Caused by Fry's Death

Auditor Carr, this afternoon, at 4:25, appointed Robert W. Hinchman as trustee of Union township, to fill the unexpired term of J. Willson Fry, whose death occurred last week. Mr. Hinchman is a well qualified man for the place and made the race against Mr. Fry for the place. Mr. Hinchman was trustee of that township a number of years ago.

ANOTHER ROBBERY

The Home of Link Guffin Entered by Thieves

Took Nothing of Much Value But Went Through the Entire House.

Saturday night between nine and ten o'clock, while Mrs. Guffin was visiting her mother, Mrs. Trusler, who lives across the street from the Guffin home, a thief entered their house and made a vain search for something of value.

He turned everything upside down going through drawers, closets and every part of the house in a thorough, but hurried manner, but secured nothing of value as far as Mr. Guffin can now determine except a small bank which belonged to the baby, and which contained a little over one dollar in small change.

Policeman Weaver was notified and hurried to the scene, hoping to find some clue or tangible evidence that might lead to the discovery of the thief.

Foot-prints made by the robber, where he entered the window were discovered, and a pair of gloves were found, but they were afterwards identified by Mr. Guffin as his own.

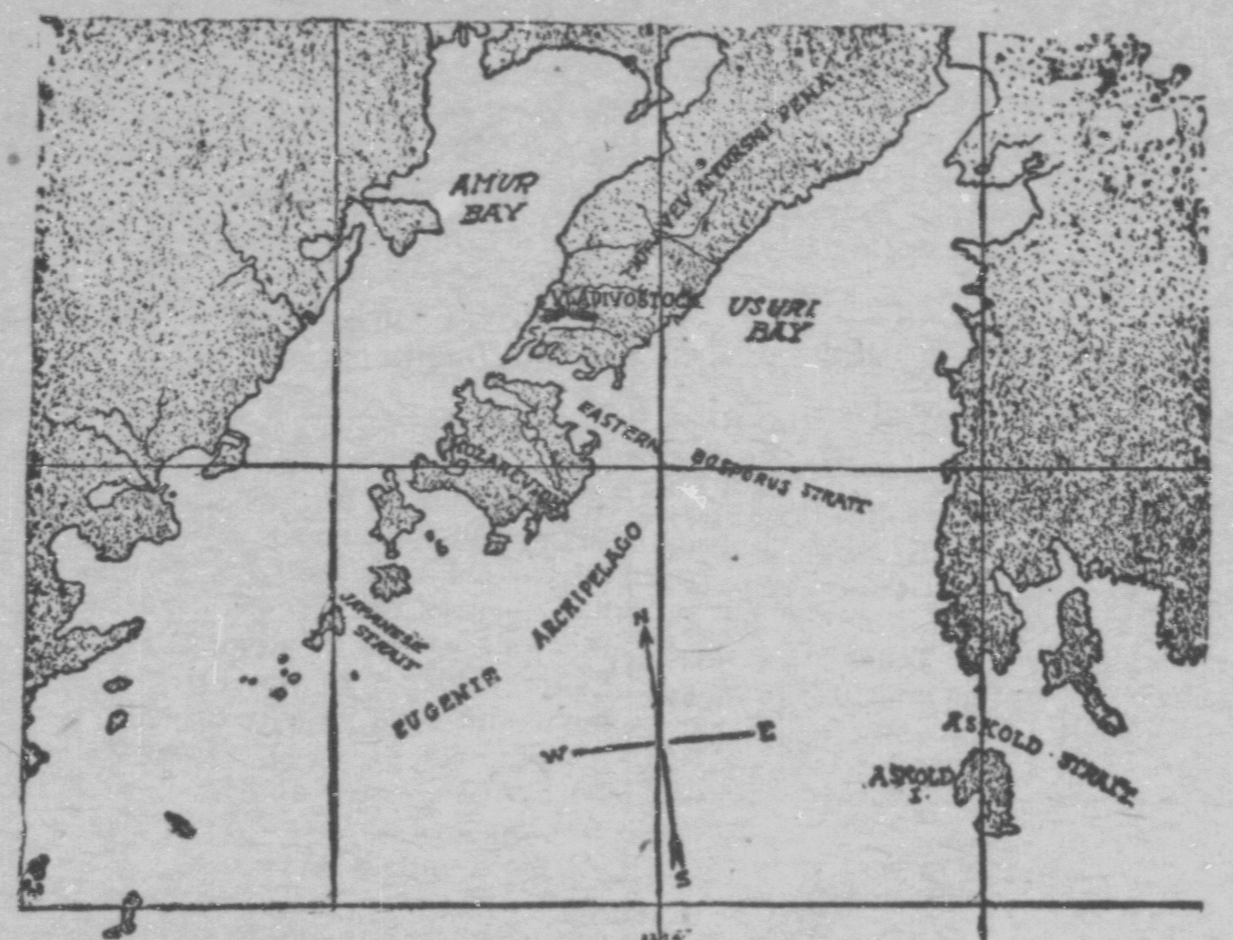

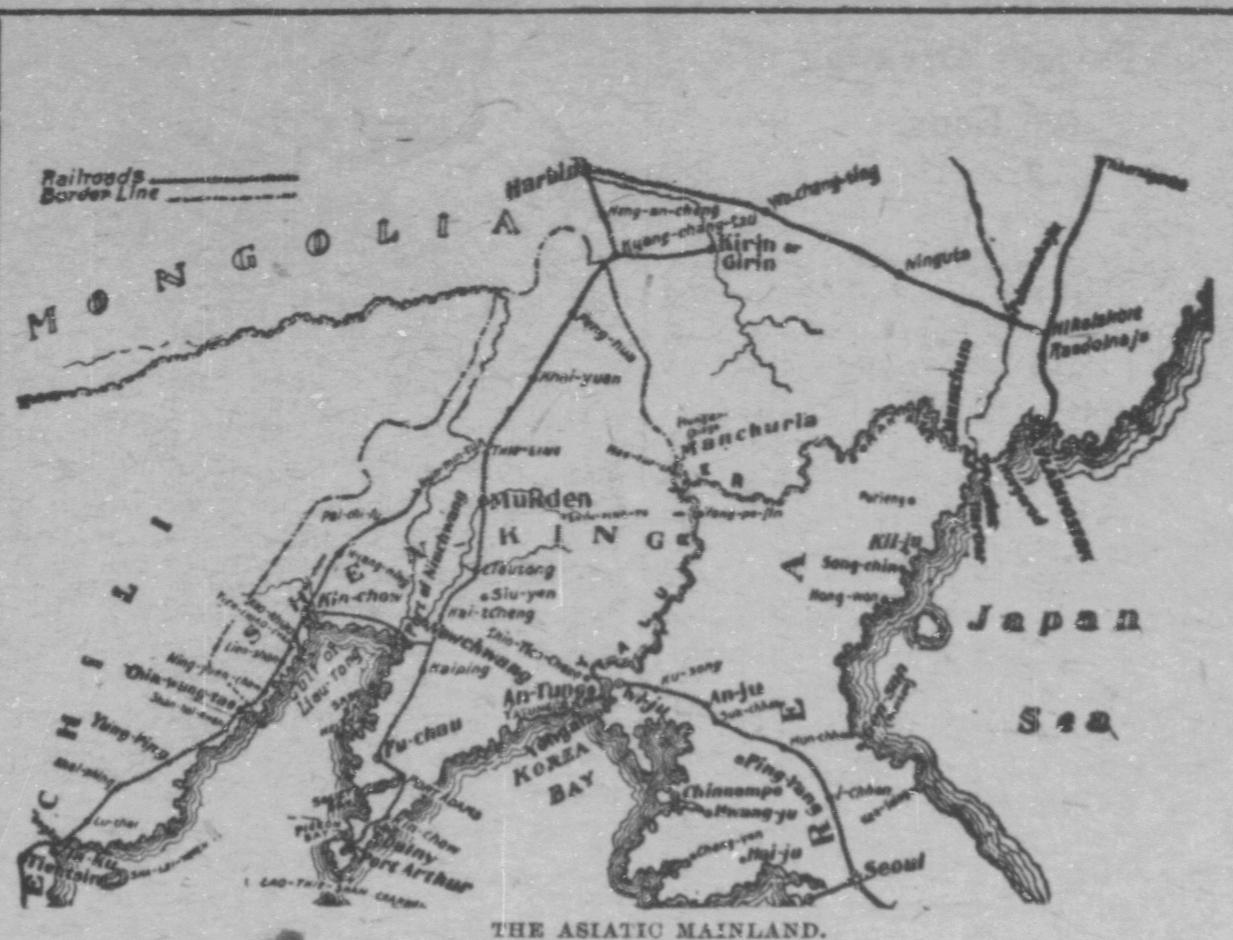

DEATHS.

Mrs. America Norris, wife of the late A. N. Norris, died Saturday after a long illness at the age of 62, and was buried at East Hill cemetery, today. The services were conducted by Rev. W. W. Sniff. She was well and favorably known throughout Rush county, having lived here for many years. Her husband died a few weeks ago.

Mrs. Thomas Redman died at her home in Glenwood, Saturday, aged 24. She leaves a husband and young babe. She died of consumption from which she had suffered for some time. She was buried Monday afternoon, the funeral services being conducted by Rev. Brown, of Falmouth.

THE THEATER OF RUSSO-JAPANESE ACTIVITY.

The map shows the places which are likely to be the scenes of desperate land fighting in the near future. The Japanese plan appears to be to divide their forces at Ping Yang, detaching some troops to go to Vladivostok to act in connection with the navy in reducing that important point. The remainder of the Ping Yang division will fight its way toward the Yalu. It is hoped that by that time the Vladivostok contingent will be free to march toward Mukden, prior to attacking which town a junction will be effected with the second Ping Yang division and the army which will be making its way up from the Liao-Tung peninsula, starting from Posen bay. If Mukden should succumb to this combined attack the next objective will be Harbin.

It requires but a single glance at the chart to see that Vladivostok is not vulnerable from the sea if her batteries are properly manned and equipped. However, the Japs appear to have set their hearts on taking the place, and it is possible that this consummation will result from a combined sea and land attack.

TELEPHONE TROUBLE

Discovered Yesterday by Superintendent Davis.

A Lead Bullet Shot Into the Cable
Caused all the Trouble.

Yesterday, Superintendent Davis, of the local Telephone Company, removed an injured cable running south through the alley west of the engine house. Parties on that line complained of "crosstalk," and Mr. Davis, after considerable search, discovered the trouble in the cable just west of the engine house. Investigation proved that some one—probably when shooting at a bird—had struck the lead covering, cutting quite a hole in it, which allowed the water to enter and saturate the paper covering of the wires and causing all the trouble.

It was found necessary to remove thirty feet of the cable and replace it with new, a process requiring both time and considerable skill.

If people knew, or cared, how much trouble and expense an act of that kind caused, perhaps they would be more careful about the delightful (?) sport of shooting sparrows.

Yesterday was the first Sunday since the discovery, that the weather would justify the risk of opening the cable.

Mr. Davis reports all the lines working nicely this morning.

A part of the injured cable is on exhibition in Wehrle's show window.

People should be very careful in things of this kind, for sometimes, as in this case, the slightest thing will cause a large amount of trouble and expense.

AT THE CHURCHES.

—Rev. Virgil Tevis preached at the usual hours yesterday to a very large congregation. His subjects were: Morning, "Living Christ;" Evening, "Think on These Things."

—At the Catholic church, yesterday usual services were held. In the evening Rev. P. H. Rowan preached an eloquent sermon on "The Religion of Ireland."

—Rev. H. A. Whitlock preached at the Presbyterian church morning and evening to a large congregation. In the morning, Jesse Pugh sang a solo which was well received.

—Ninety dollars were contributed to missionary and other causes at the U. P. church, Sunday. Sixty dollars went to missionaries and the remainder to the church here.

—Rev. W. P. McGarey preached a fine sermon to young people, Sunday morning on "The Tale of Bethlehem," which was well handled and was attentively listened to. The evening services were held at the usual hours.

—There will be union services at the Main Street Christian church next Sunday evening, in the interests of the American Bible Society. All of the pastors will be present and are on the program for short talks. All are invited.

—At the Main Street Christian church, last night, J. S. Hughes, of Chicago, preached on "The Apostle John and his Writings," to a large and appreciative congregation. In the morning the regular pastor, W. W. Sniff, preached, using for his text "Fulfilling the Law of Christ." B. F. Miller sang a beautiful solo in the morning.

NO BIG BATTLE

Report That 1,300 Japanese
Were Captured Was Not Well Founded.

Outside of Minor Engagements
There Has Been no Action
Worthy of Name.

London, March 21.—Nothing has reached here to confirm the report that a battle has taken place on the Yalu in which the Russians captured 1,800 prisoners.

A dispatch from St. Petersburg to a news agency dated yesterday says there has been no change in the situation and that all is quiet on both land and sea. Between the Russian line from Ping Yang to the Yalu river and the Japanese line to Gensan, there have been slight skirmishes between scouts, but no battle has taken place, as the distance between the opposing armies is great. The bulk of the Russian forces, the dispatch adds, has not yet passed the Yalu river.

A St. Petersburg correspondent says that the military authorities were startled by the attempt of the Japanese to land in Helena bay, as the nearest Russian force that could have been used against them consisted of three rifle regiments at New Chwang. The weather having hindered the Japanese landing, energetic measures are now being adopted to prevent such a descent.

Among the other devices adopted has been the concentration of troops at Foo Chow, twenty-two miles south of Helena bay.

In calling the fact that all British and American residents at New Chwang must remain within the walls, a correspondent at New Chwang says: "I was arrested while attempting to leave yesterday." The correspondent says it is reported that a Japanese squadron arrived at the mouth of the Liao river Saturday night and landed a party which, after reconnoitering, re-embarked.

A correspondent at New Chwang cables as follows: "According to information received here the reason the Vladivostok forts did not reply to the bombardment by the Japanese was because the batteries were not provided with guns. Since the bombardment parties have been working night and day to place guns in position. The Russian losses were slight because the batteries were deserted. The same conditions prevail at Vladivostok as at Port Arthur. The supply of provisions there is running short, and the population is panic-stricken. The ice is considered the only real protection."

Parliament in Special Session.

Tokio, March 21.—With stately ceremony the special session of parliament convened to provide the money needed to wage the war against Russia was opened Sunday. The emperor, clad in the uniform of a generalissimo, rode in the great state coach from the palace to the parliament house and personally read his address to the peers and commoners. For the first time the crown prince attended the ceremony. He followed his father to the improvised throne in the peers' hall and stood close by his right side while he read his appeal to his subjects. The peers are in session today to prepare a response to the speech from the throne.

Merchants Forced to Leave.

Victoria, B. C., March 21.—The Boston Steamship company's steamer Shawmut arrived Sunday from Manila, via China and Japan. Among the passengers were Augustus Libby and Cornelius Hoff, Jewish merchants at Vladivostok who received twenty-four hours' notice from the Russian military authorities to leave the country. They had to abandon their business, sell out at a heavy sacrifice and travel by sledge more than 1,000 miles to the nearest port on the Korean coast.

Red Cross at Vladivostok.

Vladivostok, March 21.—The Russian military plans are proceeding satisfactorily here. The first detachment of the Red Cross from Russia has arrived and has been distributed among the field hospitals. More than a hundred nurses have been sent from here to Manchuria and Korea.

The Russian Rabbit's Foot.

St. Petersburg, March 21.—The metropolitan archbishop of St. Petersburg has sent an ikon to the torpedo boat Roshitely, which in the conflict of March 9 managed to elude the Japanese fire. This ikon, it is believed, will safeguard the boat from further harm.

BURIED AT EAST HILL

Funeral of Mrs. Joel Smith of Milroy Today.

Mrs. J. W. Hogsett, Mrs. Geo. Aultman, Mr. and Mrs. Marsh Stevens, W. H. Moffett and wife, Mrs. I. L. Clifford, A. B. Irvin, W. E. Wallace, Mrs. W. A. Cullen, Mrs. W. A. Jones, J. F. Moses attended the funeral of Mrs. Joel F. Smith, at Milroy, this morning. The sermon was preached by the Rev. Schmunk, of the Milroy U. P. church, assisted by the pastor of the Spring Hill church. The funeral was held at the house and was largely attended by the people of Milroy. The expression among the people of Milroy is one of great sorrow at the death of Mrs. Smith, whose thirty years' residence there has greatly endeared her to the whole community. The remains, accompanied by the family, and pall-bearers from Milroy, were brought on the 11 o'clock train and buried on the family lot at East Hill.

Judge Gooding Dead.

Judge David Saunders Gooding, aged eighty years, died at the home of his sister, at Greenfield last night of pneumonia, after an illness of one week. He left a son, Marshall Gooding, an attorney of Indianapolis, and two brothers and a sister.

Judge Gooding was one of the most prominent Democrats in Indiana several years ago. He was born in Fleming county, Kentucky, in 1824, and his father moved to Rush county two years later. In 1836 the family went to Hancock county and Judge Gooding died in a house on the ground where his father conducted a tavern when he first went there.

During the Hancock campaign in 1880 he was a speaker of national reputation. He was a devoted Methodist and an ardent temperance worker and it is claimed his politics more than one time cost him an office.

Republican City Convention.

The Republicans of Rushville City will meet at the court house Thursday, March 24th, 1904, at 7:30 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of selecting two committeemen in each Ward; also to select delegates to city convention, to be held at the opera house, Thursday, March 31st, 1904, at 7:30 p. m.

The apportionment of delegates is as follows:
 First Ward meets in the Assembly room, and is entitled to 22 delegates.
 Second Ward meets in the County Superintendent's room and is entitled to 20 delegates.

Third Ward meets in the Sheriff's office and is entitled to 24 delegates.

The city officers to be selected on March 31st, 1904, are: Mayor, Treasurer, Clerk, Marshal. By order of
J. M. STEVENS,
GRANT GREGG,
G. R. KELLEY,
 Committee.

It's a good ticket and will win by a large majority.

If reports sent from counties over the State to Indianapolis papers are correct, the nomination for Governor is already made.

The Republican gave the convention reports to the people within twenty minutes after adjournment with the vote of each township for the most important offices and the resolutions set out fully.

All the candidates made speeches after their defeat pledging themselves to the support of the man who defeated them, which not only insures the election of the ticket, but makes the defeated candidate popular and leaves him in fine shape for next time.

At last the Democrats of this county and George Ray agree on one thing. J. Albert English, of this city, in an inspired poem on the recent Democratic primary, writes, among other things, that "there was no stipulated price," to which Ray not only agrees but maintains that there was no stipulated price, and that the demands were met in all cases.

"Let him talk," says Cleveland. Then he adds that he doesn't care any more about what a certain other conspicuous Democrat says than he does about the wind that blows. It is not difficult to tell who it is that Mr. Cleveland has in mind. At the same time this same man received almost a million more votes for president than Cleveland did.

Mr. Bryan seems still to have an opinion of the sage of Princeton. He says that Grover Cleveland would not vote for a candidate running on the two commandments, if that candidate had not previously mortgaged himself to Wall street. And this seems to be a fair indication of the way the two factions of the Democratic party are getting together.

The skin of the whale is from two inches to two feet thick, that of a large specimen often weighing thirty tons.

Political Gossip.

Indianapolis, March 21.—Some queer complications are arising out of the rule laid down by the Republican state convention to provide that in joint legislative districts the counties having representatives of their own shall only be entitled to delegates for their excess vote above the senatorial or representative unit. When there are counties in a district that are without representation of their own the rule is a good thing as the big counties can't "hog the ring" so to speak. The peculiar and interesting complications arise in joint districts like Boone, Hamilton, Madison and Montgomery counties. Boone, Hamilton and Montgomery each have a representative. Madison has two. So the excess vote rule applies to each county. The trouble arises out of the fact that in Boone and Hamilton the excess gives them but one vote. Montgomery is entitled to three but Madison, the big county, has enough excess to give it six votes. Here will be a joint convention of four counties with but eleven delegates and the big county against which the rule was aimed, having all the advantage. The state committee receives a number of letters each day asking for a minute construction of the rule.

The candidates have another month to work for places on the Republican state ticket as the convention will be held the fourth week of next month. There is much interest in the contests but it may be stated fairly that the interest is not so deep as it was four years ago when there were six active candidates for governor. There has not been the usual talk of deals this time but perhaps it is a trifle early for that. Hanly is still a strong favorite in certain quarters for governor and it looks as if he is increasing his hold upon the situation yet in politics "there is many a slip 'twix the cup and lip" so what looks like a sure thing now may be battered down at the convention. The friends of Wm. L. Taylor are confident that he is gaining ground every day and that he will be a power at the convention. The followers of Warren G. Sayre and of Judge Penfield also express every confidence in the outcome of their respective candidates.

Can Hearst land the Indiana delegation to the St. Louis convention? The question is being regarded very seriously by politicians. That the editor-candidate's strength has been underestimated is now being reluctantly conceded by members of the regular Democratic organization who thought they would have smooth sailing in lining up the Hoosier delegation for Parker or Gorman. The fact that such men as Chas. F. S. Neal, J. Oscar Henderson and Daniel W. Sims have identified themselves with the Hearst movement has caused more than a ten-day's surprise, as it was very naturally expected that they would line up with the old crowd. There is not the slightest doubt but that most of the party leaders in Indiana are against Hearst but the New Yorker doesn't seem a bit disturbed as he is going right ahead with his plans to capture the state delegation.

An amazing feature connected with the visit of the Hearst boomers to Indianapolis was the antics of the horde of political grafters that infests the city. There are a lot of this class of men here who are simply waiting around eager to devour anyone who comes along with the cash. The much heralded "cheek and checkbook" campaign that Hearst is conducting appealed to their hearts and they fairly swarmed about the Claypool hotel where Hearst's agents were stopping. They were for Hearst as a matter of course, but they were after the money good and strong. The statement by Hearst's agents that no money would be expended except in legitimate organization may cool their ardor.

There may yet be a large field of candidates for lieutenant governor before the Republican state convention. It was stated here today by a prominent politician that Walter Ball of Muncie has fully determined to enter the race. He wanted to become a candidate sometime ago but decided not to be. It is said, however, that friends have induced him to change his mind and that he is about ready with his announcement. He will only have a month in which to work but his friends are sure he can accomplish wonders in that time. The First district may also present a candidate as it is said that a boom is being started for John W. Brady of Princeton.

Now a Matter of History.
 Lafayette, Ind., March 21.—In a few weeks the old Wabash and Erie canal will be a thing of the past so far as Lafayette is concerned. The high water has washed away the Wildcat dam and it will not be rebuilt. This will mean the passing of wildwater, a portion of the old canal used as a meeting point for boats.

 Vincennes, Ind., March 21.—Ignatz Roeloff, seventy years old, a retired farmer, was killed by an Evansville & Terre Haute fast train at Emerson.

A WEEK OF BILLS

Supply Measures Will Attract Current Attention of the Senate.

Postoffice Matters Will Engage the Further Attention of the House.

Washington, March 21.—The present week in the senate will be devoted almost entirely to appropriation bills, beginning on Tuesday with that for the District of Columbia and following with the Indian and pension bills. Neither the district nor the Indian bill has been reported from committee, but both are promised early in the week and they will take precedence over the pension bill notwithstanding the latter is now on the calendar. The pension bill is held for possible additions made necessary by additional legislation, but its consideration will not be long delayed.

It is not expected there will be any effort to increase the amount carried by the bill on account of the recent executive pension order. Whatever sum may be required to carry the order into effect will be incorporated in a general deficiency bill. Unobjected bills on the calendar were taken up today and further consideration may be given to Senator Fairbanks' bill providing for a new department building in this city.

IN THE HOUSE

Adjournment Taken Today in Honor

 pneumonia. The postoffice bill is pending and several knotty questions, such as rural free delivery salaries, railway mail subsidies and railway mail service, are likely to prolong its consideration for several days. The military academy bill is not expected to consume much time. The sundry civil bill probably will be ready the latter part of the week, and its consideration will extend into the following week. Present indications are that no other matters of importance are likely to be injected into the proceedings of the week. The postoffice report will be cared for hereafter by the McCall committee which is to sit in open session during the week.

Swarthout, editor of the Manila Times, president of the Merchants Publishing company, of the Far Eastern Press club, and of the Manila Press club, was a passenger on the steamer Shawmut, arriving here Sunday, bound for Washington, to lay the grievances of the white residents before congress. He says the great question there now is the scarcity of labor, the Filipinos declining to work at any price. Mr. Maculloch, head of the biggest printing and publishing firm in the islands, also was on his way to San Francisco seeking labor. He says his business has been practically suspended owing to the impossibility of obtaining laborers at reasonable rates.

Young, from New York March 12 for Plymouth, Cherbourg and Southampton, came into collision in the English channel Sunday with the Peninsular and Oriental steamship Assaye, under contract to the British government and used as a troop ship, bound for Bombay with 500 troops on board. Both vessels were able to enter Southampton, and the New York was docked for temporary repairs. Nobody was injured. It will be impossible to estimate the damage to the New York until she has been put into dry dock. It is believed that both vessels have been somewhat seriously injured. Another troopship will replace the Assaye.

COUNTY NEWS.

Mauzy.

There will be services held at Ben Davis next Sunday. R. B. Givens, of Milroy, pastor.

A man's knowledge isn't as powerful as a woman's intuition.

Any girl who thinks as much of a man as she does of herself will do to tie to.

No man ever lived a right life who has been chastened by a woman's love, strengthened by her courage and guided by her discretion.

To our favorite at Freemans. As there are two things we are afraid of, both being good kickers, we are not a good judge of the shoes or stockings of either, a woman and a mule.

The actual number of stars to be seen on a clear night is estimated at only 3000. Many a man has gone home rather late, and can make oath that he counted more than that and did not get half through.

Geo. Aultman and wife, of Rushville, spent Sunday with John Danbenspeck and wife.

Glenwood.

Mr. Albert Jeffery called on Miss Phenix Hunt, the primary teacher, of this place, last Sunday afternoon.

The Republican convention held last Saturday seems to have given general satisfaction.

The P. O. S. of A. instructed Mr. Joseph Baker in the mysteries of the order on last Friday evening.

Some of the members of Glenwood lodge, I. O. O. F. went to Falmouth to aid in initiation of three candidates on last Saturday night. Falmouth lodge has instructed 38 candidates in the last month. This leads anything in the State so far.

Mr. O. L. Nash bought a pair of mares of C. Williams last week. The mares are hard to beat anywhere.

J. W. Dickey, of this place bought a pair of mules of Mr. Frank Leisure last Wednesday. He thinks he has a pair of fine mules.

Mr. Ed. Harlow's father has been visiting him the last few days.

Mr. J. E. Ryburn who is substitute for Ed. Harlow on Route 27, served two days last week. Esty don't seem to like the business.

Several of our citizens were courting at New Castle last week.

Mrs. Redman, wife of Thos. Redman, who has been ailing with consumption for quite a while, died at the home of her father-in-law, Jas. Redman, on the 19th inst. at 10 minutes before 10 o'clock. She was twenty-one years two months and eight days old, just in the prime of life. Everyone who knew her loved her. She passed away happy in Jesus. A short service will be held at the house by Rev. Jas. Brown, of Falmouth, her pastor, on Monday. The funeral will leave the house at one o'clock. The husband, child and relatives have the sincere sympathy of everyone.

TWO TON BLACKFISH.

A School That Was Driven Ashore at Cape Cod.

One day in November, several years ago, the good people living on the Massachusetts bay shore at the north end of Cape Cod were wrought to the highest pitch of excitement by the arrival of an immense school of blackfish which were on the flats chasing bait, as the small fish they feed on are called, and gradually working inshore. The news spread like wildfire. Village stores were hastily closed, schoolboys deserted schoolrooms, and even women flocked to the shore. The flats along the coast make out from half a mile and a half practically level and almost dry at low tide where at high tide is four to eight feet of water. No school of blackfish so large as this had ever been heard of. And by good luck the tide was ebbing.

Hastily the boats were launched, each taking a half dozen men and boys, those not rowing being armed with sticks and pieces of board. In a quarter of an hour they were in position in half circle and to leeward of the fish.

"Close in now," came from the "commander," "and make all the noise you can!" And they did, fairly churning the water with boards and sticks. The thousands of squid and herring assisted in this movement by getting in to shoal water as far as possible so that the blackfish could not follow them. The result was inevitable. The fast ebbing tide soon began to leave the big fish in such shoal water that it was difficult for the larger ones to swim. Gradually the circle of boats drew nearer and nearer, and in two hours 90 per cent of the entire school was stranded on the flats. For weeks after the villagers were engaged in cutting up and trying out the oil. The total catch netted some $25,000, many of the fish weighing two tons apiece. Outing.

STATE NEWS.

Indianapolis, March 21.—After nine hours of wrangle the state oratorical association of Indiana decided that the oration of Luther Feeger of Earlham was discourteous to Notre Dame and could not be delivered at the interstate contest unless numerous changes were made in it.

The speech was given by Feeger at the state contest held in this city last February and won the state contest, which entitled him to contest in the interstate event. The subject is "Gustavus Adolphus," and contained, it is said, attacks on the Catholic church which are said to be untrue to history, and on this ground Notre Dame asked Feeger to change his oration. Feeger refused to do this, stating that the time was not sufficient. B. V. Kanaley, the Notre Dame representative on the state oratorical board, asked that a special meeting of the association be called to consider the matter. This was done, and representatives of the seven Indiana colleges in the association met in this city to take up the question.

When the final vote was taken all the institutions, with the exception of Earlham, voted that the change must be made before the speech could be delivered. Feeger stated that he would not make the required changes, and in this case the representatives decided that Indiana would not be represented in the contest.

CRACKSMEN ROUTED

Sensational Battle With Burglars in Amboy Bank.

Amboy, Ind., March 21.—In a running battle with burglars Cashier Ora Tinkson, of the Miami County bank at Amboy, was shot in the right hip and painfully wounded after the cracksmen, who had blown open the safe, were driven away, leaving $40,000 in booty behind them.

T. M. Warren saw two men working in the bank as he was returning from a train and called the cashier, Ora Tinkson. They armed themselves and went to the bank, arriving after the burglars had made two explosions, blowing off the outer doors of the safe. They fired on the burglars and frightened the cracksmen away just as they were about to open the shattered door of the cash box. The burglars fired in return as they fled and one shot struck Tinkson in the hip, wounding him quite painfully but not fatally. It is believed that one of the safe blowers was wounded, but they made their escape with $20 taken from an outside cash drawer.

Boys Declare Against Cigarettes.

Kokomo, Ind., March 21.—After a prolonged crusade, Professor R. A. Ogg, superintendent of the Kokomo schools, has banished the cigarette from the public schools. Kokomo now has an army of 3,000 pupils pledged against the use of tobacco in every form. Prof. Ogg has made a study of the evil effects of cigarette smoking among children and, aided by the faculty and board of education, began a war of extermination against the weed. As a result of several courts of inquiry about a score of tobacco dealers were arrested for selling to children in violation of law. The boys were made to tell where they bought tobacco and it is now an impossibility for boys under sixteen years of age to buy tobacco in this place, and the cigarette habit is entirely broken up in the schools.

Killed by Companion's Gun.

Norristown, Ind., March 21.—Bert Williams and John Windsor, both of Greenfield, were duck hunting on Brandywine creek, five miles west of this city. Windsor's double-barrel gun was set ready to fire, and in going over the fence both of the barrels were discharged, striking Williams in the region of the heart, killing him instantly. He was twenty-five years old, unmarried and the support of a widowed mother.

Prisoner Made His Bow.

Shelbyville, Ind., March 21.—Judge Morris brought Wilber F. Sanders before him and sentenced him to from two to twenty-one years in prison, charged with murdering the infant babe of Eva Cochran. The prisoner thanked the judge for the sentence, made a bow and left his presence in charge of Sheriff Luther.

Fled to Indiana.

Madison, Ind., March 21.—In a quarrel over exchanging tobacco Sunday at Lee's Landing, Ky., Henry Stucker, Jr., was shot and killed by Richard Crofton, an engineer. Crofton fled to Indiana.

Terre Haute, Ind., March 21.—George Sanders, aged fourteen, was instantly killed by a Vandalia train at West Terre Haute.

Buddhism.

Mrs. Dumm—I see a piece in the paper about some society people being interested in Buddhism. What's that?

Mrs. Dummer—Why, I guess that must be the doin's of these young society people that's called "buds."—Philadelphia Ledger.

The Safest.

Sharpe—Yes, Parker invented the safest air ship ever heard of.

Wheaton—But it refused to fly. You couldn't get up on it.

"That's why I say it was the safest."

Success.

She—And what would you call a successful poet?

He—One who leaves money enough to bury him.—Judge.

A straight line is shortest in morals as well as in geometry.—Rabel.

GETTING TOGETHER

Operators and Miners Meet to Sign the New Scale.

Indianapolis, March 21.—For the purpose of signing the joint wage scale according to the terms of the operators' compromise, a meeting of the sub-scale committee, consisting of two miners and two operators from each of the four competitive states of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and western Pennsylvania is being held today at the Claypool hotel. The new scale which will be signed by the miners and operators will embrace a reduction from the present mining scale of 5.55 per cent, as set forth in the ultimatum of the operators. This is a reduction of one-half the increase secured by the miners at their conference last year, or a reduction of 5 cents per ton on screen mining and 3 cents per ton on the run-of-mine. This will make the new scale approximately as follows: Pennsylvania, Ohio and the block district of Indiana, lump coal, 85 cents per ton; Indiana bituminous, mine run, 52 cents per ton; Indiana bituminous, lump coal, 85 cents per ton; Illinois bituminous, mine run, with Danville as basic point, 52 cents.

One feature of the new scale is that it will be a two-years' contract, and will assure peace and amicable relations in the mining industry for that period of time. Heretofore all contracts signed by the miners and operators have been for a term of one year.

ANTI-LYNCHING CRUSADE

Confederate Veterans Place themselves on Record.

Grenada, Miss., March 21.—An anti-lynching crusade has been inaugurated by the W. R. Barksdale camp United Confederate veterans of this city. The following significant resolution were unanimously adopted at a largely attended meeting of the camp: First, that we are unalterably opposed to the lynching of a human being, save perhaps for the one unmentionable crime.

Second, that as Confederate veterans and law-abiding citizens of Mississippi and of the United States we are violently, vehemently and eternally opposed to the practice of burning a human being for any crime whatsoever.

Third, that we appeal in thundering tones to all Confederates, their wives and daughters, and to that great and glorious organization, the Daughters of the Confederacy, one and all, to arise in their might and by precept and example, voice and pen, moral force and influence, help put a stop to this diabolical, barbaric, unlawful, inhuman and ungodly crime of burning human beings.

Fourth, that we heartily approve and applaud the action of Gov. Vardaman in his recent successful efforts to save a criminal from a mob bent on burning.

The Wages of Sin.

Akron, O., March 21.—M. F. Spezial, aged fifty-five, and Mrs. Ethel Bennett, aged thirty-five, registered last night as man and wife and were found dead in their room at Glenn's hotel. Spezial leaves a widow and five children. His wife, recently sued for divorce, naming Mrs. Bennett in her petition. Mrs. Bennett's husband left her on account of alleged infatuation for Spezial and is now serving in the army in the Philippines. The coroner rendered a verdict of suicide in both cases. It is believed that they decided to die together.

No Grounds for the Report.

Washington, March 21.—Count Cassini, the Russian ambassador, has been invited by the Russian minister of finance categorically to deny the report which has been current in several European capitals to the effect that Russia was forbidding the exportation of any grain from the empire. The Russian minister of finance in a cablegram to Count Cassini says there is absolutely no ground for the report.

Internal Revenue Collections.

Washington, March 20.—The monthly statement of collections of internal revenue shows that for the month of February, 1904, the total collections amounted to $17,403,363, an increase over February, 1903, of $1,152,969. For the eight months of the present fiscal year the total receipts were $157,347,294, an increase over the corresponding period of 1903 of $2,648,289.

Kentucky Tragedy.

Henderson, Ky., March 21.—James Milam shot and killed Isaac Morgan Sunday. It is said that Morgan went to Milam's house with two loaded pistols. He was ordered away by Milam who had a pistol in his hand. Morgan began firing and Milam returned the fire, killing Morgan. Milam surrendered to the officers.

Actor Sought Death.

Detroit, Mich., March 21.—Robert Leeland an actor and writer of several melodramas, was found dead Sunday in his room in a lodging house of Columbia street. He had committed suicide by turning on the gas.

Vice-Regal Heiress.

Big Street Car Barn-Fire.

Chicago, March 21.—Fire last night destroyed the Union Traction company's car barns at Division street and Western avenue, causing a loss of $150,000.

Dogs in China.

Dogs in China are chiefly despised, except as house workers or for culinary purposes. A black dog with yellow eyebrows is valued as a first rate house dog, but a white one with black eyebrows will bring luck to his owner, while a black dog is the king of his race. A "lion dog"—belonging to the small, shaggy northern breed—will bring good fortune, while the only real Chinese canine pet is the "sleeve dog," so called from being small enough to lie in the capacious Celestial sleeve. Retrievers are apparently unknown, while greyhounds are lanky and slow.

Could Lift a Ton and a Half.

A Scotchman, said to be the last of the Stuarts, was possessed with an extraordinary strength, from which circumstance he got the byname of Jemmy Strength. Among other feats, he could carry a 24 pounder cannon and had been known to lift a cart load of hay weighing a ton and a half upon his back. Many a time he took up a jackass and, carrying it on his shoulders, walked through the tollgate.
